

Anthony is the Managing Partner at Destribats Campbell Staub & Schroth, LLC. The Law Firm was founded in 1972 by Anthony's late Father, Jay G. Destribats, and is the oldest law firm in Hamilton Township, New Jersey. Prior to joining the Firm, Anthony was an attorney with Pepper Hamilton LLP in Princeton, New Jersey (now Troutman Pepper LLP).

Anthony concentrates his practice in commercial litigation with a focus on complex contractual disputes, business disputes, environmental law, landlord/tenant law and tax appeals. He is a court-appointed mediator and is admitted to practice law in New Jersey and Florida and before the U.S. District Courts for the District of New Jersey, the Northern District of Illinois and the Southern District of Florida.

Anthony received his undergraduate degree from Barry University in 1990, with a B.S. in Political Science, and his Juris Doctor from St. Thomas University School of Law in Miami, Florida, in 2001, where he graduated in the top 10% of his class, was a Merit Scholarship recipient and was awarded top honors for his studies in Corporations and Evidence.

During law school, Anthony represented victims of domestic violence, pro bono, for the Miami Beach Legal Aid Domestic Violence Project. Anthony also was a certified legal intern and assistant state attorney with the Broward County State Attorney's Office, where he prosecuted and tried criminal matters, including jury trials, for the State of Florida.

Following his graduation from law school, Anthony spent one year as law clerk to the Hon. F. Patrick McManimon, J.S.C. and the Hon. Paulette Sapp-Peterson, P.J.Cv.S.C. in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Mercer Vicinage. As a law clerk, Mr. Destribats supervised the Law Clerks' Mediation Program for Small Claims Court, participated extensively in the Special Civil Part Bar Panel Mediation Program and assisted the Presiding Judge with her motion calendar.

Anthony served over ten years on the Board of Directors for Cyclic Vomiting Syndrome Association and was a member of the fundraising committees for various civic organizations including the American Cancer Society, the Trenton Area Soup Kitchen, the Parkinson's Alliance and the Mercer County Bar Foundation. Anthony currently is a member of the Mercer County Bar, The Florida Bar Out of State Attorneys' Association and is an Executive Board Member for the Rescue Mission of Trenton and Hamilton YMCA.

Anthony is married to Tara and they have two children, Antonio and Dario.
