

CPR

What is CPR?

Cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) helps maintain vital blood flow to the heart and brain.

How can you tell if someone needs CPR?

If someone doesn't respond, check for breathing and a pulse. When you can't see, hear, or feel any signs of breathing and you can't find a pulse after 10 seconds, the person probably needs CPR.